

Euler Hermes Greece awarded
“1st prize for Export Assistance, Financial Services 2013”

ATHENS - 9 DECEMBER 2013 - During the Exports Money Conference 2013, organized by Ethos Media in cooperation with the Greek Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Euler Hermes Greece was awarded the 1st prize for Export Assistance Financial Services 2013.

The award’s main objective was to recognize organizations that support Greek companies in their effort to trade internationally or penetrate new export markets. The judging committee, a panel of 10 export market experts, considered four key criteria: concept, value, delivery and impact.

“This award is the result of the continuous efforts of our entire team to strengthen the services we provide to Greek managers and to help Greek companies safeguard their international business transactions,” said Vassili Christidis, Euler Hermes Greece CEO. “Despite the country’s tough economic conditions, the prize recognizes the ability of Euler Hermes to remain close to business’s needs while strengthening its position as the market leader.”

Established in 1995, Euler Hermes Greece employs 50 people at its Athens headquarters and Thessaloniki office. It serves the market with a range of trade credit insurance solutions and debt collection services. Greece is part of the Euler Hermes Mediterranean Countries, Middle East and Africa region, along with GCC countries, Israel, Italy, Morocco, Portugal and Turkey.
